

Report on significant event conducted – OCTOBER 2020

MAHILA KISAN DIWAS

Celebration of Mahila kisan diwas on 15.10.2020 has taken up in our KVK seminar hall. This programme was purely women's centric theme oriented like Women empowerment, Women in agriculture nutrition and income generation for the year 2020. In order to commemorate this programme, KVK has joined line with DMI- Self Help Groups. A total of 44 women participants participated in this programme. During the inaugural programme Senior Scientist and Head address the gathering and highlight the importance of women in agriculture and also invoked the women participants during this programme. Mrs. Fathima, Assistant Director of Horticulture, Perambalur emphasized the importance of women and their agriculture activity, role in the family. They also emphasized the importance of ground water potential and systemized to use water cautiously. Also to sustain the water to the next generation Followed by Sahaya Mary, DMI- District Coordinator praised the women participants attend the programme suggested to improve the potential to reach new heights. SMS(Agronomy) explained the evolution of Mahila Kisan Diwas. SMS(Agronomy) and PA(Computer) has taken up the initiative drawing competition on Women in agriculture and essay competition on Rural women / Urban women The participants are actively involved in the programme. The result of the competition was judged by a jury. a team of experts identified best 3 drawings and 3 essays respectively. At the end of the programme, prizes were distributed for all categories. 110 citrus saplings were distributed to all the participants.

ADH, Perambalur gave the special address

Drawing competition on women in agriculture

Prize distributed to the participants

Fruit saplings given to the participants