

Report on significant event conducted – AUGUST 2021

Training and Awareness on Food and Nutrition for farmers

ICAR – Krishi Vigyan Kendra organized training on Food and Nutrition for farmers under “Azadi ka amrit mahotsav” on 26.08.2021. smt. P.Sri Venkata priya , District collector inaugurated the programme. Dr.K.Varadharajan, Chairman, was given felicitation address. Dr.V.E.Nedhaji Mariappan, Senior Scientist and Head, has welcomed the gatherings and delivered speech on organic farming practices in crop cultivation to ensure nutrition security. In the technical session, Miss.S.Kokilavani, Subject Matter Specialist (Home Science), delivered lecture about Food habits for healthy life style, Establishment of nutrition garden, Importance of balanced diet, Effect on nutrition garden towards reduction of mal nutrition like maramus, kwashiorkor, anemia. Training on processing and value addition in millet were organized. In training, preparation of nutritious recipes and its health benefits were covered. Small Millet biscuits, Small millet laddu, Thinai patasam, Kambu puttu, Health mix were prepared and exhibited by anganwadi workers. As a part of Food and Nutrition for farmer programme, distributions of desi chicks to ST farmers under SCSP programme were given by district collector. To honor and recognize the contribution made by farmer, progressive farmer awards were given to six successful farmers belongs to agriculture and allied sciences. Tree saplings were planted at our KVK farm by district collector. Dr.V.Sangeetha , Subject Matter Specialist (Horticulture) has given vote of thanks. Farmers viewed virtual programme on speech by Honourable Agricultural Minister. Total of 75 farmers were participated from Perambalur district.

Inauguration by District Collector,
Perambalur

Award given to the progressive farmer by District Collector

