

Report on significant event conducted – SEPTEMBER 2019

Workshop on “Vaccination, Deworming, Artificial Insemination and Productivity” held on 11.09.2019 at Kilapuliyur Pudhur village

ICAR, New Delhi advised all the KVK's to conduct a workshop on “Vaccination, Deworming, Artificial Insemination and Productivity” 11.09.2019 in nearby villages as a part of awareness programme to farmers and livestock owners. Knowledge on disease control over Foot and mouth disease and Brucellosis disease were opted as main focus in this workshop. Pamphlets and posters were displayed and distributed to farmers in the workshop at the venue. A joint venture of State Animal Husbandry department and Ministry of Animal Husbandry involved in conducting the workshop on 11.09.2019 early in the morning at 7.00 AM at Kilapuliyur pudhur village of Perambalur district. Joint Director along with other officials of State Animal Husbandry department and KVK scientists involved in conducting the workshop. About 30 animals were artificially inseminated 480 animals were dewormed, 33 animals were diagnosed with pregnancy, 16 with infertility, 450 animals were vaccinated for FMD and Brucellosis ad 83 numbers were diagnosed with different ailments and treated by the veterinarians of both state and central animal Husbandry department. Then the programme was organized in KVK campus for the webcasting of the workshop from Mathura by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India. Then the progrmame ended in release of booklet on “Dairy Cattle rearing and fodder management” at the function in KVK which concluded in a grand success manner.

Animal Health Camp

Pamphlet distributed to farmers

Webcasting of PM' speech on the occasion at KVK